PRO-SERIES TRAFFIC LOOP BLADE

The LO100 PRO-SERIES Traffic Loop Blade is designed for professional slot cutting and joint-widening applications in concrete and asphalt pavement. Ideal for cutting channels for traffic-loop wires, electronic vehicle-detection systems, and electrical cables. It can also be used to open and widen random cracks or existing joints prior to cleaning and resealing with joint sealant material. Engineered for controlled slot widths, consistent cutting performance, and dependable blade life in professional roadway and pavement applications.
